About the Facility

The Victorian County Court Facility opened in 2002. It is privately owned, maintained and operated by The Liberty Group, a wholly owned subsidiary of Challenger Limited.

The Facility was constructed to a premium quality in accordance with a Public Private Partnership agreement. The Liberty Group provides accommodation, security, and information technology services.

The Facility is located in the heart of Melbourne's Legal Precinct, on the corner of William and Lonsdale Streets. It is in close proximity to the Supreme, Magistrates', Children's and Commonwealth Law Courts.

In accordance with the unique Public Private Partnership arrangements, courtrooms not booked by the County Court can be used by other parties for a range of appropriate uses.
